

Merchant Terms and Conditions Indonesia

1. Introduction

1.1 These Terms and Conditions set out how Ezypay will work with you to help manage your payment processing.

1.2

Contract Term	Notice Period to Terminate	Exclusivity
24 months (Unless specified otherwise definition of "Term" in Clause 2)	90 days (Unless specified otherwise see definition of Termination Notice Period in Clause 15)	Exclusive (Unless specified otherwise – see Clause 4)

2. Term

2.1 Initial Term

2.1.1 This Agreement begins on the date we process your Application Form and continues until the end of the Term unless:
(1) terminated earlier in accordance with this Agreement; or
(2) renewed in accordance with 'Renewal Terms'.

2.2 Renewal Terms

2.2.1 This Agreement will automatically renew for an equal successive Term unless either party gives notice of termination in writing to the other party during the Termination Notice Period.

3. Preconditions

3.1.1 Ezypay does not have to provide Services to you unless and until:

3.1.2 we have obtained a credit reference check on your Business that is reasonably satisfactory to us and we have confirmed any other relevant details we gather during the application/onboarding process;

3.1.3 if we determine that alternative merchant arrangements for you are necessary or desirable in order for us to provide the Services to you, those arrangements have been put in place and are reasonably satisfactory to us; and

4. Exclusivity

4.1.1 Unless your Application Form or other applicable agreement specifies otherwise, this Agreement is exclusive, which means that you may not use another billing and collection service for the agreed payment method during the Term.

4.1.2 As an exclusive applicant, then you agree not to use another billing and collection service during the Term of our Agreement. Doing so can be seen as a breach of this agreement (early termination), with applicable penalties.

- 9.1 You must keep your own accurate records in relation to your Customers.
- 9.2 Ezypay will not provide Customer account details or other information to a third party at any time in electronic format, hard copy or in any other form unless requested by you or requested by Ezypay's banking partners or any Government Departments.
- 9.3 In accordance with both the Malaysia PDPA – Personal Data Protection Act 2010 and Indonesia's Law No. 27 of 2022 on Personal Data Protection ("PDP Law") on personal data protection your customer must consent to us passing on their details or other information to you.

10. Fees and Payments

- 10.1 You must pay the Fees (including any Fees payable to us and passed on by you to your Customers) and any other amounts due under this Agreement by the specified due date.
- 10.2 You indemnify us for all Fees and other amounts due under this Agreement which are passed on by you for payment by any of your Customers.
- 10.3 You must disclose to Ezypay the level of any surcharge to Customers in accordance with relevant legislation, comply with that legislation, and refrain from inflating charges or charge any undisclosed surcharges. You indemnify us against any breach by you of any relevant legislation in relation to fees such as surcharging rules.
- 10.4 You must reimburse us promptly for any funds which may have been paid to you in error.

- 10.5 You acknowledge that part of the Fees may be paid by us as commissions to our processing partners.

11. Providing Information

11.1 Compliance

- 11.1.1 You must provide us any information that we may reasonably request from time to time to verify that you are compliant with this Agreement.

11.2 Customer data

- 11.2.1 You must notify us in writing of any changes to any Customer related data at the time you are informed by the Customer or become aware of the change, to ensure our records are up to date and accurate.

12. Confidentiality and Privacy

12.1 Privacy

- 12.1.1 Each of you and us must comply with all applicable privacy laws in respect of personal information collected, used and disclosed in connection with the Services.

12.2 Confidentiality

- 12.2.1 Each of you and us must keep confidential the Confidential Information of the other, subject to the other provisions of this clause.
- 12.2.2 A party to this Agreement (Recipient) that receives the Confidential Information of the other party (Discloser) may use the Confidential Information only in relation to the provision or receipt of Services, or to enable that party to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

12.3 A Recipient may disclose the Confidential Information of the Discloser

- 12.3.1 to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under this Agreement, but only to its employees, when they have a need to know and are under an obligation to keep the information confidential;
- 12.3.2 to obtain advice or professional services, on a confidential basis, from professional advisors;

12.4 A Recipient may disclose the Confidential Information of the Discloser if the disclosure is required by Law, if the Recipient:

- 12.4.1 where practicable, provides the Discloser with notice of the details of the proposed disclosure, as soon as practicable and prior to the disclosure;
- 12.4.2 provides any assistance reasonably required by the Discloser to protect the confidentiality of that information;
- 12.4.3 notifies the third person that the information is Confidential Information of the Discloser; and
- 12.4.4 requires the third person, where practicable, to keep the information confidential.

12.5 A Recipient must

- 12.5.1 not copy the Confidential Information of the Discloser except when it is necessary for the purposes of this Agreement;
- 12.5.2 implement reasonable security practices to protect the security and integrity of the Confidential Information of the Discloser;
- 12.5.3 immediately notify the Discloser if the Recipient suspects or becomes aware of any authorised copying, use, or disclosure of the Confidential Information of the Discloser; and
- 12.5.4 comply with any reasonable direction of the Discloser in relation to the Confidential Information of the Discloser.

12.6 Publicity

- 12.6.1 You must obtain our prior written approval to:
 - (1) make or authorise any press release or other public statements concerning us, or the Services we provide; or
 - (2) distribute any publicity, advertising or other materials containing references to us.
 - (3) You authorise Ezypay to use your name, logo and/or registration/trademark without notice or consent to positively promote our relationship through materials that may be disseminated to the public. The promotional materials may include but are not limited to, brochures, videos, websites, press releases, advertising online and/or in other periodicals. Such materials may be developed, disseminated, and used without your review.

13. Changes to your Business

- 13.1 You must notify Ezypay as soon as you become aware of any of the following:
 - 13.1.1 if you are a company, your company becomes Insolvent, or its beneficial owners, directors and/or proprietors are declared bankrupt, or are convicted of any financial or fraudulent crime(s);
 - 13.1.2 your Business is (or is proposed to be) fully or partially sold;
 - 13.1.3 changes to the ownership or control of the Business, including beneficial owners; or
 - 13.1.4 major changes occurring within your Business that may affect your ability to comply with this Agreement.
- 13.2 Ezypay may determine that additional due diligence is required in the case of a change to the beneficial owners. You must provide Ezypay with any information it reasonably requires for this purpose.
- 13.3 You must provide Ezypay with satisfactory evidence of any change in ownership, control, or management, in order for Ezypay to recognise the changes.
- 13.4 If Ezypay incurs any costs or expenses to facilitate the changes referred to in this clause, Ezypay will notify you and will charge you for those reasonably incurred costs or expenses, providing a reconciliation of the costs involved.
- 13.5 If Ezypay reasonably determines that a change to your Business will or is likely to reduce the benefit Ezypay receives under this Agreement, Ezypay may notify you of this and the parties will discuss in good faith possible amendments to this Agreement (including pricing) to deal with the change.

14. Force Majeure

- 14.1 If by reason of unavailability of network services, labour disputes, strikes, lockouts, inability to obtain labour or materials, fire or other forces of nature or acts of God, pandemics, accidents, wars, riots, government restrictions or appropriation, or any other causes beyond our control we are unable to perform in whole, or in part, our obligations in this Agreement, we will not have to perform those obligations to the extent that we are unable to perform them.
- 14.2 Upon the occurrence of any of the events above, we must use all reasonable efforts to notify you of the failure and extent of any such conditions. Such interruptions, delay, or inability to perform will not terminate this Agreement.

15. Suspension or Termination of Services

15.1 Suspension or termination by us

15.1.1 We may withdraw or suspend any part of our Services (including termination of our agreement) immediately if:

- (1) chargebacks received exceed acceptable levels defined by the Card Schemes, in excess of 0.5% of the processed transactions each month;
- (2) if you are a company, you become insolvent or is deregistered;
- (3) we reasonably suspect that your company, its beneficial owners and/or directors have committed/are committing a fraudulent act;
- (4) it appears that continuing the Services will be detrimental to you, your customers or Ezypay; or
- (5) you fail to provide, or subsequently withdraw any agreed financial security.
- (6) at any time for any reason if we give you thirty (30) days prior written notice;
- (7) we are contacted by the police, or other Government Departments in relation to your activities and we reasonably determine that you may have breached the law or may cause loss or reputational damage to us; or
- (8) as otherwise provided for in this Agreement.

15.2 Effect of withdrawal or suspension of the Services

15.2.1 If we withdraw or suspend the Services:

- (1) we will immediately enter discussions with you regarding the reason for the withdrawal and/or suspension of the Services;
- (2) we may withhold funds, as outlined below and we will continue to hold the funds until the situation has been rectified;
- (3) we may debit your Distribution Account for any Fees, or other amounts owed to us; and
- (4) we may otherwise proceed in accordance with this Agreement.

15.3 When we can withhold your funds

15.3.1 We may withhold your funds if we determine it is reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate interests. This includes, but is not limited to, when:

- (1) you breach this Agreement;
- (2) we are in a genuine dispute about those funds;

- (3) we do not have clear authority to release those funds;
- (4) we are required by law, a court order or an order from a Government Department to do so;
- (5) we have reason to believe that you are acting illegally or inappropriately, such as when we receive significant Customer complaints or there are significant Failed Transactions;
- (6) where we consider it reasonably necessary to provision for funds subject to Customer disputes or chargeback actions that would otherwise be unrecoverable;
- (7) you become Insolvent;
- (8) we withdraw or suspend all or part of the Services;
- (9) we are claiming under your indemnity to us in this Agreement; or
- (10) this Agreement otherwise allows us to.
- (11) We can only withhold an amount of funds that is proportionate to the amount of the funds which are subject to the events set out in clause 15. For example, if we are to withhold funds because we do not have clear authority from a particular Customer to release those funds, we may only withhold funds relevant to that Customer.

15.4 When we will release withheld funds

15.4.1 If we withhold funds, we will release the funds to you if and when we reasonably determine that it is no longer reasonably necessary to withhold the funds. When making this determination we will take into account:

- (1) any legal right you may have to receive the funds;
- (2) any actual potential loss or damage to us, any Customers or third parties; and
- (3) our obligation to comply with any laws, court orders or orders of a Government Department.
- (4) When determining whether to release funds we may decide to only partially release the funds or to delay the release of the funds.
- (5) We are not required to release the funds to you when we apply the funds to any amount you owe us under this Agreement.

15.5 Termination by you

15.5.1 You may terminate this Agreement by giving notice during the Termination Notice Period.

15.5.2 If you give a notice, the termination will be effective at the end of the then current Term.

15.5.3 You may terminate this Agreement if we are in material breach of this Agreement (other than due to an event referred to in clause 14) and we have not remedied the breach within thirty (30) days of a notice from you specifying the breach and the action required to remedy the breach.

15.5.4 If all remaining funds due for distribution have been processed, you consent for Ezypay to deduct any due fees and/or costs associated with the attempted or purported termination from your Distribution Account, and we will provide a full reconciliation to you for the fees and/or costs recovered; and

15.5.6 if you attempt or purport to terminate this Agreement other than as permitted by this Agreement, we may:
review what you have been paying us for the last six months and charge you for the rest of the Term on that basis; or review what you told us about anticipated payment volumes before this Agreement began and charge you for the rest of the Term on that basis.

16 Indemnity

16.1 Your indemnity to us

16.1.1 To the extent permitted by law, you must indemnify us (including our affiliates, directors, officers, employees, and agents) from and against any claims, damages, actions, losses, penalties, costs, expenses or liabilities suffered or incurred by us (including Customer claims) arising in any way from or in connection with:

- (1) our collection of Customer Payments;
- (2) any failure by you to pay Fees, or any other amounts due under this Agreement;
- (3) any failure by your Customer to pay any amounts due relevant to this Agreement;
- (4) any matter affecting the validity of Customer Payments;
- (5) any liability disclaimed by the Banking Provider;
- (6) any matter affecting the creditworthiness of a Customer;
- (7) any misrepresentation of the identity of a Customer;
- (8) any breach of this Agreement by you;
- (9) any bank fees or charges incurred in respect to circumstances described in this clause;
- (10) any failure of a Direct Debit or other payment transaction or any of its operations or processes due to any accident;
- (11) any failure of a Direct Debit or other payment transaction or any of its operations or processes due to any accident, neglect, or misuse by you or a third party;
- (12) any failure of a Direct Debit or payment transaction or any of its operations or processes due to any viruses, security hacking or any errors in code or software;
- (13) any instance where we withhold your funds in accordance with this Agreement;
- (14) your negligence or fraud or that of any of your employees, contractors, or agents;
- (15) the fraudulent use of a DDR or the information stored in a DDR, whether lost, stolen or otherwise;
- (16) any dispute arising between you and a Customer;
- (17) any representation, warranty or statement made you or your employees, contractors, or agents to a Customer;
- (18) any misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration in relation to your dealings with a Customer;
- (19) any Failed Transaction;
- (20) any legal or other fees we incur because of you becoming Insolvent or because of you selling or otherwise changing the ownership of your Business; or
- (21) any acts or omissions by you or your Customers, employees, affiliates, directors, officers or agents that cause you or Ezypay to breach or otherwise not comply with the Xendit Tripartite Terms and Conditions (or any terms and conditions incorporated by reference therein (including the Xendit T&C)).

16.2 How your indemnity applies

16.2.1 You must indemnify us as provided above even if:

- (1) a Customer has been issued with a bank account or credit card;
- (2) we have processed a Direct Debit or payment transaction for the Customer;
- (3) you have complied with this Agreement; or
- (4) this Agreement has ended.

16.3 Exclusions from your indemnity

16.3.1 You do not indemnify us where:

- (1) a loss arises; and
- (2) it is our fault or that of our employees, contractors, or agents; and
- (3) it is due to fraud, wilful default, or negligence of our employees, contractors, or agents.

16.4 Recovery under the indemnity

16.4.1 If you must indemnify us under this Agreement, we may recover the indemnified amount from any amount held for distribution to you, or we may direct debit your Distribution Account for the indemnified amount.

17 Warranties

17.1.1 You warrant to us that:

- (1) if you are a corporation, you are duly incorporated;
- (2) if you are a trustee, the trust is validly formed, and you have a full right of indemnity from the trust assets in respect of this Agreement;
- (3) you have the legal capacity and authority to execute the Application Form and to be bound by this Agreement; and
- (4) you have obtained authority from each Customer for us to debit their account/payment method.

18 Disputes and Chargebacks

18.1 Chargebacks

18.1.1 Chargebacks remain your responsibility and are a matter between you and your Customer.

18.1.2 Should Ezypay suspect or have reasonable evidence to believe that any transaction is likely to result in a chargeback, Ezypay is not obliged to accept or process the transaction.

18.1.3 If a transaction dispute results in a transaction being deemed invalid, fraudulent, or your Customer claims the transaction is invalid, Ezypay may process that transaction as a chargeback and recover those funds from you as an adjustment from the next settlement disbursement.

18.1.4 You indemnify Ezypay for, and agree Ezypay will seek to recover, the chargeback amount, including any associated fees incurred, from your nominated settlement bank account.

18.1.5 To comply with Card Scheme regulations and to minimise Chargeback exposure, Ezypay will include all or part of your business or trading name descriptor that will appear on your Customer's bank statement.

18.2 If Chargeback occurs, Ezypay:

- 18.2.1 will notify you by email that the Chargeback has occurred;
- 18.2.2 will not enter into any transaction disputes between you and your Customer;
- 18.2.3 will deduct the Chargeback amount from your next scheduled settlement disbursement;
- 18.2.4 may deduct a Chargeback amount from you at any time up to 12 months after the Chargeback transaction occurs; and
- 18.2.5 will require proof that the transaction was authorised by the Customer and that you provided the goods and/or services associated with the transaction.
- 18.2.6 Ezypay will monitor Chargeback frequencies and where Chargebacks exceed acceptable levels, you will be required to rectify the cause of the Chargebacks within a 30-day period. Ezypay reserves the right to suspend the Services in the interim if the cause of the Chargeback occurrences has not been rectified to the reasonable satisfaction of Ezypay.

19 Changes

- 19.1 Acting reasonably, we may amend this Agreement from time to time by giving notice to you where it is reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate interests, or to benefit you.
- 19.2 We may notify any changes to these Terms and Conditions by posting an amended version of the Terms and Conditions on our website which will then supersede the existing Terms and Conditions.
- 19.3 Any amendments to these Terms and Conditions or the Fee Schedule will form part of this Agreement.
- 19.4 Any change to this Agreement does not affect any accrued rights and liabilities of the parties before the change is made.

20 General

- 20.1 This Agreement is governed by the laws of Malaysia..
- 20.2 The parties agree to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Malaysia for resolution of any dispute that is not resolved after the parties have made a good faith attempt to resolve the dispute.
- 20.3 If any part of this Agreement is held to be illegal or invalid, then only the illegal or invalid part will be void and the rest of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect.
- 20.4 If there is any inconsistency between these Terms and Conditions and the other parts of this Agreement, those other parts prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.
- 20.5 If you or we do not enforce a breach of this Agreement, this does not mean that a further breach of the same kind is excused.
- 20.6 Where you or we must provide notice, the notice must be in writing and addressed to the party to which it is given as shown on the Application Form or other address notified in writing.
- 20.7 All notices will be effective on the date of delivery or, if sent by ordinary mail, after two days following the date which the notice bears. If sent by email, notice will be effective from when it is received on the mail server of the recipient.
- 20.8 This Agreement will apply to the respective successors, permitted sub-contractors and assignees of each party.

20.9 We may assign this Agreement after giving you thirty (30) days prior written notice. You are not permitted to assign this Agreement to another party without written permission from us. We will not unreasonably withhold or delay consent.

20.10 If any term of this Agreement is regulated by legislation relating to unfair contract terms and we are advantaged by that term, we may only exercise our rights under that term to the extent (if any) reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate interests, unless the term would not cause a significant imbalance in the parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement or it would not cause detriment (financial or otherwise) to you if we applied the term or relied on it. Words used in this clause have the same meanings as under the applicable legislation.

20.11 "We may" when used in this Agreement means:

20.11.1 we have the right referred to but no obligation to exercise the right;

20.11.2 the right may be exercised at our discretion;

20.11.3 you acknowledge and agree that we have the right; and

20.11.4 you authorise us to exercise the right if we choose.

20.11.5 "You may" when used in this Agreement means you have the right referred to in the way described directly above.
